

Course ID: HIST101 Course Name: World History Test Name: The Impact of the Industrial Revolution Test Type: Essay

Scoring Criteria (Total: 50 points)

Criteria	Description	Points
Understanding of Industrial Revolution	Explains key causes, effects, and historical significance.	15 points
Use of Historical Evidence & Analysis	Supports points with primary or secondary sources.	10 points
Cause & Effect Relationships	Shows how industrialization changed society.	10 points
Organization & Coherence	Structures essay logically with clear transitions.	10 points
Grammar, Syntax & Vocabulary	Writing is clear and formal.	5 points

Detailed History Rubric

Criteria	5 (Excellent)	3–4 (Proficient)	1–2 (Developing)	0 (Needs Improvement)
Understanding of Industrial Revolution (15 pts)	Clearly explains key causes, effects, and significance.	Covers the basics but lacks detail or depth.	Mentions the topic but with errors or missing key aspects.	Does not demonstrate understanding of the Industrial Revolution.
Use of Historical Evidence & Analysis (10 pts)	Supports claims with strong primary or secondary sources.	Uses sources, but some are weak or unexplained.	Minimal or weak evidence with little analysis.	No historical evidence or entirely inaccurate.
Cause & Effect Relationships (10 pts)	Clearly connects industrialization to societal changes.	Shows some cause-effect relationships but not fully developed.	Basic connections but lacks strong supporting details.	No analysis of cause-and-effect relationships.
Organization & Coherence (10 pts)	Well-structured, logical essay with strong transitions.	Mostly organized but with some unclear sections.	Disorganized structure with weak transitions.	Lacks structure and logical progression.
Grammar, Syntax & Vocabulary (5 pts)	Excellent grammar and sophisticated vocabulary.	Some minor grammar issues, but overall clear.	Frequent grammar and vocabulary mistakes.	Major grammar errors make understanding difficult.